PLACES OF INTEREST

Mt Carbine: Founded in 1890 after the discovery of Wolfram deposits. The town has a roadhouse pub and caravan park.

Palmer River: The site of Queensland's largest gold rush in the 1870s. Relics of the gold rush days can be seen at the roadhouse.

Lakeland: A rich fertile farming area where the road divides northwest to Cape York or continues north on the Mulligan Highway to Cooktown. In the small township you can find a hotel/motel and roadhouse.

Black Mountains: A small range surrounded in mystery it is rumoured that many people have ventured in but never returned.

Lions Den Hotel: A historic hotel built in the 1870s on the banks of the Little Annan River.

SCENIC STOPS

Martin Tenni Lookout: Mossman - Mt Molloy Road, 14 km southwest.

Bob's Lookout: 29 km north Mt Carbine (Peninsula Development Road).

Byenstown range lookout: 14 km south of Lakeland (Mulligan Highway).

Black Mountain Lookout: 22 km south Cooktown (Mulligan Highway).

Grassy Hill Lookout: Cooktown (Baird Road).
