PLACES OF INTEREST

- Mt Carbine: Founded in 1890 after the discovery of Wolfram deposits. The town has a roadhouse pub and caravan park.
- Palmer River: The site of Queensland's largest gold rush in the 1870s. Relics of the gold rush days can be seen at the roadhouse.
- Lakeland: A rich fertile farming area where the road divides northwest to Cape York or continues north on the Mulligan Highway to Cooktown. In the small township you can find a hotel/motel and roadhouse.
- Black Mountains: A small range surrounded in mystery it is rumoured that many people have ventured in but never returned.
- Lions Den Hotel: A historic hotel built in the 1870s on the banks of the Little Annan River.

SCENIC STOPS

- Martin Tenni Lookout: Mossman - Mt Molloy Road, 14 km southwest.
- Bob's Lookout: 29 km north Mt Carbine (Peninsula Development Road).
- Byerstown range lookout: 14 km south of Lakeland (Mulligan Highway).
- Black Mountain Lookout: 22 km south Cooktown (Mulligan Highway).
- Grassy Hill Lookout: Cooktown (Baird Road).
